

Welcome Lewis Cuckson to our 0-20s team!

Lewis Cuckson has started his new role this week with us here at Bulli Anglican Church and we are thrilled to have him onboard! Lewis answered the call earlier this year to take up the opportunity of Trainee Children's Minister, and it was not a hard sell at all.

Lewis joined us here at BAC in early 2023 when he moved to Wollongong for University. His brother Will was part of our 5pm service and Young Adults ministry and Lewis began checking it out and quickly became a regular and joined the Young Adults Bible Study too. Lewis joined our kids club team by mid-2023 after serving at Kids Holiday Club and it was easy to see he had a real heart for kids ministry and a God given growing skill set.

Lewis grew up in Port Macquarie and attended church his whole life with his family, His mum in particular had always been involved in kids ministries and Lewis had taught Kids church alongside her. When he moved to Wollongong for Uni he started a primary Education teaching degree with the view of one day adding theology and training as a Children's Minister. We are thrilled to see how God will grow him and teach him at Youthworks College starting in Semester 2, 2025.

His role as Children's Trainee is different to the previous role held by Izzy Ellery, mostly due to his skill set, and so he will spend most of his time with Kids Club and Kids Church ministries, which means a wiggle around of Kat's role to now oversee him in these ministries but have a more hands on approach in our ministries to 0-5s and their families, of which she is keen for and is looking forward to.

Please pray as he starts, for growth in leadership and his theological training at Youthworks College.

Welcome
